of the first outward signs of what the citizens of Washington are to enjoy in the way of a public celebration Independence day will be visible this afternoon on the Monument grounds from half past 4 to 6 o'clock, when the participants in three groups which are to take part in Uncle Sam's 137th birthday party will rehearse their parts under the direction of Miss Hazel Mackaye of the Drama League.

The rehearsals will begin at 4:30 o'clock, when the twenty-seven charsouthern states will go through with the performance of which they are to be a part July 4. The twenty-seven characters will include the human alligator, the human ostrich, the five boys the characters who are to take the place of the various southern states. At 5 o'clock, the characters who are to represent the middle western states will be rehearsed; and these will include twelve girls who are to represent "wheat" and seven boys who are to represent "corn," as well as the seven boys who are to depict the middle western states. At 5:30 the women who are to take the parts of the thirteen original colonies will rehearse their parts.

Graham Velsey will assist Miss Mackaye in her "stage" management, and will lead the group of boys who are to reprenevertheless, to visitors to the Monument grounds who want to acquire some knowlwhen the celebration is he.d July 4.
